

NAME _____

ENGLISH
LISTENING		GGA Level 16
Comprehension	Attention & Listening
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In a conversation pupil understands what details the listener needs to know Listen & react appropriately by continuing on what has been said Prove listening has taken place by responding appropriately, e.g. listen to peers & make supportive comments, remember specific points in a report, accept questions, follow instructions Recognise there may be different audiences, which require different responses, e.g. wait quietly if an adult is busy, show an awareness of the detail the audience needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand the importance of listening carefully, e.g. pay attention to the speaker, listen to instruction, become aware of the importance of listening & understanding Listen & react appropriately by continuing on what has been said Recalls a sequence of events/information previously heard in the correct order Recalls information heard after a delayed period of time, e.g. keeping an appointment made the previous week Listen to familiar person recalling sequence of instructions, e.g. asking directions to the Post Office to recharge electricity top up card

	Date		Date		Date		Date		Date
20% Achieved		40% Achieved		60% Achieved		80% Achieved		Level Achieved	